

YOU ARE INVITED TO A SEMINAR ON URBAN LANDSCAPES

CO-HOSTED BY PARKS FORUM AND PARKS, CONSERVATION & LANDS

GUEST SPEAKER: SUSAN RADEMACHER – PITTSBURG USA

As Parks Curator for the Pittsburgh Parks Conservancy since 2007, Susan is responsible for revealing, preserving, and promoting the cultural significance of the Pittsburgh Parks. She oversees planning and design of capital projects, develops design standards, and investigates the cultural, landscape, and social history of park landscapes.

THURSDAY 8 APRIL URBAN LANDSCAPES

9.00 – 10.30

MANAGING HISTORIC LANDSCAPES:

Approaches to guarding and maintaining the value of parks as cultural landscapes, in balance with contemporary needs and resources, and in tune with ecological systems.

12.30 – 13.30

GENERAL DISCUSSION AND QUESTIONS OVER LUNCH

11.00 – 12.30

CREATING URBAN PLACES:

The key success factors in developing and successfully completing projects such as Schenley Plaza, Mellon Park, and Mellon Square, through public awareness, partnerships, and fundraising strategies.

VENUE: CAUGHLEY SMALL SEMINAR ROOM
(Building 44) CSIRO Gungahlin Site
Bellenden Street off Barton Hwy

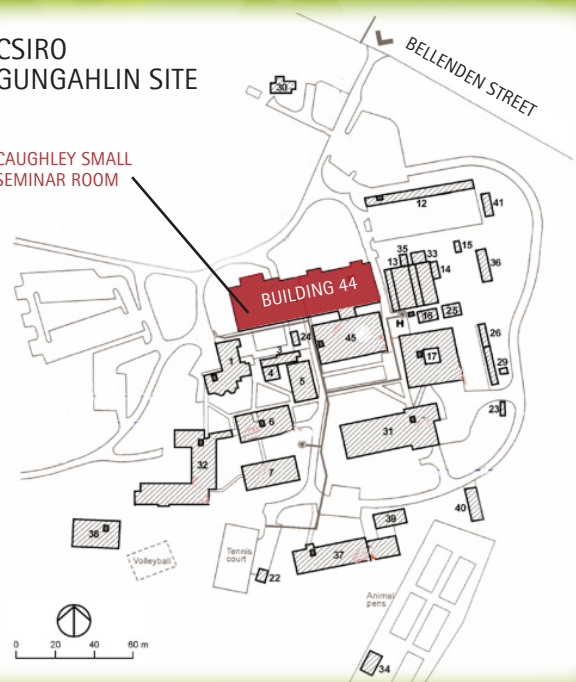

DATE: Thursday 8 April 2010

START: 8.45am for 9.00am

RSVP: Friday 2 April
Jeevani.Hadinnapola@act.gov.au
phone (02) 6207 1229

CSIRO
GUNG AHLIN SITE

CAUGHLEY SMALL
SEMINAR ROOM

PARKS FORUM
PARKS CONNECTING COMMUNITIES