

Urban Designer

$87,082 p.a. plus Superannuation

Option to enter into a 19 day month working arrangement

The City of Sydney is one of the world's most spectacular cities. Every year, another $3 billion pours into its evolution.

With our Sustainable Sydney 2030 Plan in progress, the City is committed to positioning Sydney as one of the world's leading green cities in the race to address climate change.

With a focus on design excellence and environmental sustainability, the City is strengthening its human resources in the area of urban design.

Alongside developing our key 2030 projects we are we developing a range of strategic projects, tackling public infrastructure, high-rise, major retail and commercial development, heritage conservation and urban renewal on an impressive scale. We're also working to nurture our diverse inner city villages and the vitality of central Sydney.

The City is seeking an enthusiastic and motivated urban designer to join its City Plan Development team.

You will have a tertiary qualification in urban design, architecture or a related discipline combined with extensive experience in a range of public and private contexts including urban design and plan making projects.

Visit www.cityofsydney.nsw.gov.au/jobs for a position description. For further information contact Jesse McNicoll, Urban Design Coordinator (02) 9265 9098. Applications must address the selection criteria stated within the position description, include the names and telephone numbers of two referees and be made via the City's website by Sunday 19 February 2012.

We are an EEO employer and encourage applications from diverse cultures and people with disabilities.