Applicant's Statement

Under the AILA rules, a retired membership is only available to Registered Members (Registered and Fellows) who have retired completely from paid professional activity and who have ceased to advertise or to be available for paid consultancies or project works.

The retired status entitles a member to full membership entitlements while paying a fee approximately half the full membership fee. This fee may be varied.

I wish to be considered for Retired Membership Status and state that I meet the Retired Membership criteria.
