

LANDSCAPING AFTER THE BUSHFIRES

Presented by Sustainable Gardening Australia (SGA), in partnership with the Landscape Industries Association of Victoria (LIAV).

Date: Tuesday, April 7th

Time: 4pm - 6pm (drinks and nibbles afterwards)

Venue: Holmesglen TAFE Conference Centre
Cnr Warrigal & Batesford Roads, Chadstone
FREE car parking is available off Batesford Road

Cost: SGA ECLIPS Members - $44 (incl. GST)
LIAV Members - $44 (incl. GST)
Non Members - $66 (incl. GST)

Payment and Booking Information:

Tel: SGA on (03) 9850 8165 or email: elaine@sgaonline.org.au

Visa, Mastercard and cheque payments accepted

RSVP: Friday, April 1st

Presenter: Dr Greg Moore - University of Melbourne

Managing gardens and urban landscapes after bushfires is an important part of the recovery process. Removal of dead or dangerous plants is critical early on, but knowing which species can survive can allow landscapes to bloom again by Spring. Correct timing and good decisions can make all the difference!

